

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT DEPARTURE RECORD

International Services is required to update the SEVIS records of students who leave UDM and the U.S. either permanently or temporarily (except for summer vacation or other school breaks). You must complete this form if any of the following applies to you:

- * You are leaving the U.S. temporarily (except for summer vacation or other school breaks) but intend to return to UDM to complete your academic program.
- * You are withdrawing from the University and returning to your country.
- * You will finish your studies at the end of the current term and return to your country but your I-20 will not have expired.
- * You are on post-completion Optional Practical Training but have decided to return to your home country and give up your OPT.
