Policy

All requests for support from ITS must be submitted through the <http://hd.udmercy.edu> system. The only exceptions to this policy are the submission of report requests and account applications which must be completed on their required forms.

This policy has been implemented for the University community based on the recommendations from the 2004 Compuware study of the ITS department. By using the online system, ITS hopes to accurately understand the nature of the issue and provide an environment where two-way communications (including status updates) are available.

Exceptions to this policy must be cleared through the AVP for IT.
