

Islamic Studies Minor

Student Learning Outcomes

Student Learning Outcome 1:

Students will acquire a command of vocabulary to explain religious ideas, practices, and history relevant to Islam and Muslim communities, through which they will also develop an awareness of the cultural and racial dynamics of religious life.

Student Learning Outcome 2:

Students will critically evaluate and interpret a primary document(s) on major issues related to Islam and Muslim communities in their socio-political context.

Student Learning Outcome 3:

Students will conduct independent research on Islam and Muslim communities using a variety of academic and non-academic sources, including multimedia.

Submitted to the University Assessment Team on 12/15/2021.