

Let's Talk About the Opioid Epidemic

"Changing the Stigma of Addiction" and
"Hope Not Handcuffs for Addicted People"

by Macomb County District Court Judge Linda Davis

Thursday, Jan. 17, 7-8 p.m.

College of Health Professions, Room 124

Judge Davis was inspired to find a way to fight the opioid epidemic after her daughter became an addict. She believes it takes an entire community to stop the tragedy and will discuss ways for public safety and public health resources to combine efforts to tackle this issue in a humane way.

RSVP to Munai Newash at newashmt@udmercy.edu.

This presentation is sponsored by the Health Services Administration Student Advisory Committee.